No Professional Legal or Financial Advice

The information provided on this website, and in any resources or communications from The Morrison Consults, is for general informational and business educational purposes only. It is not intended as, and shall not be understood as, professional legal, financial, or tax advice. You should consult with a qualified solicitor, accountant, or financial advisor for advice on matters that affect your specific legal or financial situation.

No Professional-Client Relationship

Your use of this website, including submitting a contact form, does not create a professional-client relationship between you and The Morrison Consults. A binding contract is only formed upon the mutual signing of a separate, formal Service Agreement.

No Guarantees of Outcomes

We make no representations, warranties, or guarantees regarding the outcomes or success of your business or educational endeavours that may result from using our services. Past performance is not a guarantee of future results. Your success depends on your own efforts, market conditions, and other factors beyond our control.

Third-Party Links & Referrals

This website may contain links to third-party websites, such as Tide for company formation. These links are provided for your convenience only. We do not endorse, and are not responsible for, the content, privacy policies, or practices of any third-party sites. Our referral to Tide does not constitute financial advice, and the contractual relationship for company formation is solely between you and Tide.

Intellectual Property

All content on this site, including text, logos, and graphics, is the property of The Morrison Consults and is protected by copyright and other intellectual property laws. You may not reuse, republish, or reprint such content without our express written permission.
